

Baylor University Department of Theatre Arts

MA Theatre Studies Application Process for Admission in Fall 2024

Application Deadline is March 1, 2024

Most successful applicants will have an undergraduate degree in Theatre; some may have majored in English, History, or other humanities and created an emphasis in theatre studies through course selection.

Applicants must meet all requirements for admission to the Baylor University Graduate School.

The following materials must be received by the deadline to be considered.

1. Baylor University Graduate School Application \(on-line\). Be sure to indicate the MA Theatre program, (not the MFA Directing).
 2. Official transcripts of all previous college and university course work (sent directly from the institution)
 3. Three letters of recommendation from academic professionals familiar with your work. (may be sent separately from recommender or by applicant) *
 4. A written statement of purpose and professional goals. *
Official report of GRE General Test scores (sent directly from ETS).
